PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

This metal hanging loft lamp from the Waya series, with three 60W light points, is a simple and effective lamp mounted on a strip, equipped with movable, independent lampshades. It will be perfect where we want to precisely direct the light beam. It fits perfectly into elegant, minimalist interior arrangements, such as Scandinavian-style interiors. Thanks to the simple and elegant design, and the golden elements that break the white - it fits beautifully in modern spaces. It will discreetly emphasize the character of the room and provide a comfortable level of lighting. Due to the wide range of variants, WAYA loft lamps are a convenient choice in rooms or apartments where we want to install several different light sources. You can easily assemble such a set of hanging lamps, wall lamps and different configurations of individual lamps that will suit the chosen lighting concept. Subtle design, intuitive and easy assembly, solid construction and good quality materials enable long use, easy cleaning and convenient replacement of bulbs. The set includes Assembled lamp - all you have to do is mount the covers. Connection block Manual user instructions Bulbs are not included. Mounting pins should be purchased separately - depending on the type of ceiling on which the installation is planned.
