PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

The anthracite mailbox - Palawan model, is a solution that will help you efficiently receive and store your correspondence when no-one is at home. Mounted on the wall of a building or fence, the galvanised steel mailbox will make managing incoming mail much easier.

The Palawan mailbox is equipped with a newspaper holder so that, firstly - you can conveniently collect your subscription and secondly - you can easily keep leaflets and advertising offers under control.

Palawan allows you to use a large and capacious box, adapted so that you can also easily fit or remove bigger formats. The mailbox door - opens from the front and gives convenient access to the contents inserted there.

It is a classic model designed to fit in with the aesthetics of its environment with both its modern style, elegant colors and solid workmanship.

That's not all - the mailbox is lockable, so you can be sure that no one accidentally gets to your correspondence. In addition, the interior of the mailbox and the lock are protected from the weather.

Palawan, is a durable mailbox and a model that will last for years. The powder-coated galvanised steel will allow you to enjoy the use of the letterbox for a long time, secure and store your mail, and it will look beautiful on top of that.
