PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

Setar, a handset-free video doorphone set is an option worth considering. The aesthetically designed, requiring little space and user friendly device also comes with intercom functionality. The 7-inch screen monitor, made out of aesthetic and solid PVC is a great choice if you're looking for an efficient system to manage the entrance door as well as communication at your premises or single family house. The monitor is in white color, operated by means of clear, intuitive buttons and allows to conveniently check who is visiting us. The set is mains powered and adapted to multi-wire installation (number of wires: 4+2) which allows to control the automation system of an entrance gate and electric strike. Adapted to 12V DC voltage. The outdoor unit is equipped with a camera capable of night vision functionality (IR). The horizontal vision angle is 105 degrees. Furthermore, SETAR is designed to allow for expansion of the set (max. 2 outdoor panels and 2 video monitors) which makes it easy to configure depending on specific needs of small, medium size or even large houses. A CCTV camera can be installed instead of a supplementary panel, which will provide further sense of security ensuring the view to e.g. our driveway.
